

WORDS OF COMPASSION

The BEST Things to Say to Someone in Grief

- I am so sorry for your loss.
- I wish I had the right words, just know I care.
- I don't know how you feel, but I am here to help in any way I can.
- You and your loved one will be in my thoughts and prayers.
- My favorite memory of your loved one is....
- I am always just a phone call away.
- Give a hug instead of saying something.
- We all need help at times like this, I am here for you.
- I am usually up early or late, if you need anything.
- Saying nothing, just be with the person.

The WORST Things to Say to Someone in Grief

- At least she lived a long life, many people die young.
- He is in a better place.
- She brought this on herself
- There is a reason for everything.
- Aren't you over him yet? He has been dead for a while now.
- You can still have another child.
- She was such a good person. God wanted her to be with him.
- I know how you feel.
- She did what she came here to do and it was her time to go.
- Be strong.

Best and Worst Traits of people just trying to help.

When in the position of wanting to help a friend or loved one in grief, often times our first desire is to try to "fix" the situation, when in all actuality our good intentions can lead to nothing but more grief. Knowing the right thing to say is only half of the responsibility of being a supportive emotional caregiver.
